

YOUR MONTHLY GUIDE TO DELICIOUS DEALS AND HAPPENINGS IN OUR STORES

JULY

You stand at a grill in the backyard, smoke rising through the old oak trees, and feel the deep ease of an evening that asks nothing of you but to be present in it. The charcoal smell drifts through the neighborhood and mingles with cut grass and honeysuckle, and nobody wants to go inside.

Some mornings you stop into Guido's for sharp cheese, warm bread, and tomatoes the color of a late sunset. You find your way down to the river, spread it all out on the grass, and eat slowly while the water moves past with its easy, unhurried way. After the long back roads on the bike, you wind up at Café Rena for that cold-pressed juice, green and bright, tasting of effort and morning and the pleasure of having used your body well.

Underneath it all, there is always that sweet, stubborn wish for July to stay, for these golden days to simply agree to keep going. But maybe that longing is part of the gift. It is what makes you pay attention. It is what brings you back. All of us at Guido's will be enjoying every bit of July right alongside you.

CHERRY SNACKING CAKE

Add a cup of tea and a picnic blanket for summer teatime perfection. From Alana Chernila.

Makes one 9x9-inch cake

INGREDIENTS

8 tablespoons (1 stick) unsalted butter, at room temperature, cut into chunks, plus more for the pan
¼ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup packed light brown sugar
3 large eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt

¾ cup buttermilk
2 ½ cups mixed chopped cherries
1 tablespoon turbinado or other coarse sugar

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat the oven to 375°F. Grease a 9-inch square or equivalent baking pan with butter.
2. Combine the butter, granulated sugar, and brown sugar in the bowl of a stand mixer fit with the paddle attachment and beat until fluffy, about 3 minutes. Scrape down the sides of the bowl, add the eggs and vanilla, and beat again until combined.
3. Whisk together the flour, baking powder, and salt in a medium mixing bowl. Add the dry mix and the buttermilk to the stand mixer bowl and beat just until the ingredients are incorporated, scraping down the sides of the bowl if necessary. The batter will be lumpy, but that's okay.
4. Fold the fruit into the batter and transfer it all to the prepared pan. Sprinkle with the turbinado sugar and bake until the cake starts to pull away from the sides of the pan and is slightly golden on top, about 40 minutes. Cool for 20 minutes before serving from the pan.

NOTES: After pitting cherries, use extra care to make sure no pits are introduced to the batter during prep. A sweet finish for this snacking cake would be a scoop of High Lawn Farm vanilla ice cream or your favorite non-dairy creamy topping.

STAFF PROFILE

Meet Dain Elmendorf, Produce

For the past four years, our friend Dain has been at the heart of our Great Barrington produce section, bringing a lifelong love of growing to his work. Dain grew up on a dairy farm and ran his own for 20 years, but after retiring he found a new love for growing veggies. Now, Dain has four lush gardens on the property he shares with his wife of 33 years, Kathy, in Craryville, NY. Tending to the garden and creating yummy foods (like pickled radishes!) is Dain's greatest joy. He also loves to fish, golf, and cook delicious meals with his veggies from the garden and meats from Mazzeo's! We are so lucky to have you here at Guido's, Dain – thank you for everything you do!

FRESH, NEW GUIDO'S OWN OLIVE OILS ARE IN!

Picual & Coratina
Finishing Extra Virgin Olive Oils

From last fall's harvest, both oils are wonderfully complex and flavorful. Expect strong herbaceous aromas and a classic, balanced, peppery finish – a perfect complement to a summer caprese or as a final touch to any dish.

Arbequina
Culinary Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Fresh from Spain, our Arbequina is vibrant and fruity with mild intensity and a smooth texture. Its creamy, buttery base and crisp herbal notes make it ideal for cooking, salad dressings, or drizzling on crusty bread.

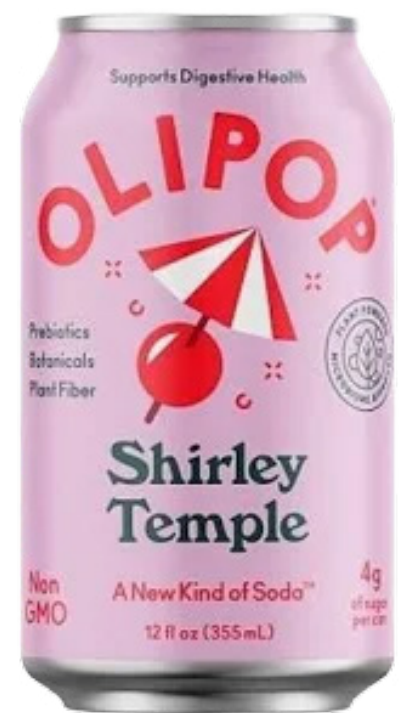

Give them a try, we'd love to hear what you think!
